

Media Advisory

SFL to host Canada's Federation of Labour Presidents

For immediate release

August 4, 2009

The Saskatchewan Federation of Labour and SFL President Larry Hubich will be hosting Federation of Labour Presidents from across Canada as they meet this week in Regina, Sask.

The Federation Presidents, who collectively represent more than two million working women and men will be arriving in the Queen City today for a meeting scheduled to run from August 5 - 7, 2009.

The meeting runs parallel to the meeting of Canada's Premiers who are attending the Council of the Federation also being held in Regina.

Among the topics being discussed by the Labour Presidents will be trade/investment, Employment Insurance, and the Canadian pension system. They will also attend a number of local events in the community.

Opportunities for interviews along with various news releases will occur over the next three days.

For more information contact: Cara Banks, SFL Communications and Research Officer at 306-533-3423 (cell)