Dear Sisters and Brothers:

Young Worker Credentials for SFL Convention 2011

The SFL Constitution ensures representation of young unionized workers at our conventions. Credentials are allocated to affiliated unions on the basis of their total provincial membership. Labour Councils are allocated one Young Worker delegate each. The Constitutional guidelines and requirements are outlined in the Young Workers Convention Call.

Credentials have been sent to the following individual(s) for distribution in their organizations.

* If your membership changes it may affect your delegate entitlement.

Please contact the designated senior staff or elected representatives of your union if you have a member who is interested in attending the SFL Convention as a Young Worker Delegate.

We ask all affiliated unions to ensure that particular consideration is given to ensuring representation from equity seeking groups (women, aboriginal, visible minorities, persons with disabilities, gays and lesbians). Young Worker delegates must be members of your union, and 29 years of age or under on the opening day of Convention.

In solidarity
